Hi Gene.. you probably missed some of the sales meetings we have discussed this..
Do you have an account # for this client?? This is basically a spam email sent to traders..
I know the last audit is done and the banking commission is issuing their response in about 2 weeks and 100% there are no major deficiencies with anything.. let me know who the client is so their account does not get closed..
I do not see anyone under that name by your rep code..
thanks
Trevor

Subject: Question on Crown

Trevor,
One of our clients forwarded me this message from FINMA. Do we have a standard response for this I can send to them to explain what this means and why it doesn't affect the GERS? Thanks

Subject: WG: Question regarding regulation

Dear Ms Butler

Crown Forex SA, Bassecourt is not authorised by the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority FINMA to conduct business as a bank, securities dealer or in the domain of collective investment schemes.

If there are grounds for suspicion that a financial company is carrying out an unauthorised activity, the FINMA will conduct investigations to establish the facts and, if necessary, take measures to protect investors' interests.

The Swiss Federal Banking Commission (SFBC), which has merged with the Federal Office of Private Insurance (FOPI) and the Anti-Money Laundering Control Authority into the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority FINMA on January 1, 2009, decided to conduct an investigation to screen the activities of Crown Forex SA. On December 9, 2008 the SFBC has appointed mandated investigators - Laurent Winkelmann, Chêne-Bougeries and Philippe von Bredow, Céligny as its agents to conduct these proceedings. Crown Forex SA commercial activity had to be suspended, its management is not allowed to speak or act for the company. This right is reserved to the investigators. It is currently not possible to close accounts or to withdraw money from Crown Forex SA accounts . The above information has also been published in the Swiss trade register.

Based on the investigator's report, the FINMA will decide how to proceed and may publish its decision on its website. For the time being, this is the only information we can provide. You may contact us again in the beginning of march, a decision may be taken then.

We hope that we were able to assist you.

Kind regards
