Dear Mr. Zayed,

We understand that Mr. Baker will be at your offices tomorrow. He has been evading service in the case we filed against Mesa. Since he is not going to be at your offices in our case, we were hoping to send the process server there to serve him. Would you please let me know when he scheduled to be there and if you have an issue with this. Our process server has been to Mesa's new location and several times to Baker's house. We could serve Mesa through the Secretary of State but that delays our proceeding even further. This seems like a possible alternative. Please let me know. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Jeralyn Baran
