ANSWER AND COUNTERCLAIM
FOR INTERPLEADER

Defendants.

ANSWER

George and Shirley Janssen, in ANSWER to the allegations contained in the above captioned matter states and alleges as follows:

I

Except as otherwise admitted or qualified denies each and every allegation contained in the COMPLAINT.

II

Defendants are without sufficient information to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the Paragraphs 1 through 132 and therefore puts Plaintiff to the strict burden of proof required in this matter.

SCANNED
OCT 23 2013
U.S. DISTRICT COURT MPLS

III

Defendants admit to Paragraph 47 insofar as it alleges that defendants George and Shirley Janssen are residents of Hennepin County in Minnesota. Defendants specifically deny the other allegations contained in Paragraph 47.

COUNTERCLAIM FOR INTERPLEADER

George and Shirley Janssen, for their COUNTERCLAIM FOR INTERPLEADER state and allege as follows:

IV

The above defendants received from Calton & Associates through its' agent Kristi Lefferts a letter of deposit of $50,000 to be placed in an account that was under the dominion and control of Calton & Associates, and or Kristi Lefferts.

V

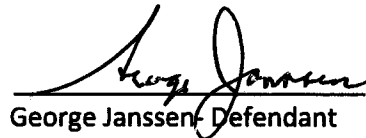

The plaintiff as court-appointed receiver of Oxford Global Partners LLC, demands payment of the principal and all interest earned on the principal deposit because of a purported assignment of the funds to Oxford Global Partner, LLC, who has notified the defendants that they are responsible to repay the receiver due to an alleged Ponzi scheme perpetuated by Oxford Global Partners and its principals and agent.

VI

Therefore, the defendant demands that:

- (a) That Calton & Associates, Kristi Lefferts, and its' bonding company whose present identity is unknown, be made parties to this action;
- (b) The plaintiff and the above entities and individual contained in (a) be required to interplead their respective claims;
- (c) The Court decide whether the plaintiff or the entities and individual contained in (a) or either of them is entitled to the deposit and discharge the defendants of any liability in this matter;
- (d) The defendants recover costs and attorney's fees.
